

Cookology

Description:

This 6,000 SF. vacant shell tenant space fit-out was a full interior renovation, into a cooking classroom in a covered mall on the 3rd level. The unique features of this particular building was the 180 degree exterior radius. The design included large glass folding/ bi-fold window/door system. Finishes included mill-work, commercial grade kitchen equipment, and featured by modern complex lighting fixture package.

Details:

Location:	Ballston Quarter Mall, Arlington, VA
Value:	5 Months
Duration:	6,000 Square feet
Size:	8 Commercial hoods, stained concrete floors, custom cold rolled metal and ash wood store front, and Raydoor custom operable partitions.
Special Equipment:	DBI Architects
Architect:	2020 Excellence in Construction Award

